• Organizations cannot host an event involving alcohol in a CSU facility.

• Off-Campus Parties

  ▪ A party is an off campus social event hosted by a student organization whereby alcohol may be available.

  ▪ Such events require that student organizations assume total liability as the University does not govern or sanction these activities.

  ▪ The University strongly advises that organizations hosting parties assume best practices in risk management processes such as identification of underage attendees, designated drivers, presence of police officers, etc.

• The University further suggests that any contracts signed by organizations hosting such events are reviewed carefully to insure complete understanding of liability and expectations.

• How to Determine an Organization Event:

  The following is a means of looking at a function and determining if it could be considered an organization sponsored event. If you answer yes to any of these questions then it qualifies as an organization event.

  ▪ Would an observer associate the event or facility with the organization?
  ▪ Will the event involve expenditure of organization funds?
  ▪ Was the event publicized as being associated with the organization?
  ▪ Does the organization assume responsibility for the event?
  ▪ Does any publicity or information include the organization information?
  ▪ Have members of the organization actively or passively endorsed the event?
  ▪ Was the facility reservation placed under the name of the organization?

This includes any event held in, at or on the property of a tavern as defined above for purposes of fundraising. However, a chapter may rent or use a room or area in a tavern as defined above for a closed event held within the provisions of this policy, including the use of a third party vendor and guest list. FIPG Guidelines for Hazing

"Any action taken or situation created, intentionally, whether on or off fraternity premises, to produce mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment, or ridicule. Such activities may include but are not limited to the following: use of alcohol, paddling in any form, creation of excessive fatigue, physical and psychological shocks, quests, treasure hunts, scavenger hunts, road trips or any other such activities carried on outside or inside of the confines of the chapter house; wearing of public apparel which is conspicuous and not normally in good taste, engaging in public stunts and buffoonery, morally degrading or humiliating games and activities, and any other activities which are not consistent with academic achievement, fraternal law, ritual or policy or the regulations and policies of the educational institution or applicable state law."

FIPG Guidelines for Sexual Abuse and Harassment

An organization should not tolerate or condone any form of sexist or sexually abusive behavior on the part of its members, whether physical, mental or emotional. (E.g. during the first NPHC meeting of fall semester a rep will select their preferred week according to their rankings).

2. The officer responsible for planning all the events must file the following with the Fraternity and Sorority Life Advisor at least one month prior to the beginning of the first event.

4. If the chapter is hosting a “party” – the officer responsible for planning the week must meet with the Fraternity and Sorority life Advisor to review the risk management policies.

5. All advertising materials must be in compliance with the university regulations. Advertising materials must be within limits.
