In an effort to improve the communication between Fraternity and Sorority Life Programs and many stakeholders who work for the success of the fraternal community at CSU, we have created our new FSL Newsletter, The Keynote.

The FSL Newsletter is a monthly publication where the governing councils, programming board, and the office will share news, important announcements, and much more!

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHTS

Check out the amazing work members of our community are doing!

Panhellenic Bid Day!

Congratulations to the Panhellenic Chapters for a successful recruitment! This year, we welcomed 46 women to the community. There was a 22% increase of women placed in a sorority (75.81%) from last fall ’17 (53.52%).

• New this year, the executive board added a Value Round to teach all new members the values of the community and how they can leave their mark at CSU!

IFC Bid Day

This fall IFC recruitment was a success as 41 men accepted a bid to Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu or Phi Kappa Tau. Each organization worked hard to increase their presence on campus and opened their chapters to new members.

Congratulations to Kappa Sigma for their record breaking class of 31 New Members!

Greek Center Renovation Update!

The Greek Center renovation project is almost done! The renovations inside the building are completed and new furniture is set to arrive at the end of this week! Next week all organizations will be able to properly reserve the center through Cougar Scheduler.

Be on the look out for the New Greek Center Open House! Date and time to be announced.

#myFraternity

Brotherhood. Service. Leadership. Support. Personal growth. We KNOW what fraternity can be and is for so many of our 4 million members.

On September 12, join the UNDISPUTED way to CHAMPION a positive fraternity experience. Using #myFraternity, Share YOUR story of fraternity to amplify the impact of real brotherhood!

“Coming into college I was young and naive to the new atmosphere. Kappa sigma as a whole were personnel guides for me in my transition into college and also in my character development so that I can not only stay in college but also be successful, and live up to my full potential.

As I near my graduation I realize all that Kappa Sigma has given to me, and how the man I am today would not have been possible without my brothers supporting me and the experiences I have gained through helping them.”

David Itto,
IFC Vice President of Recruitment

When I joined Phi Kappa Tau I became my colony’s very first treasurer and played an integral role in setting up the foundation for my fraternity. From there I took up the role of organizing our chartering metrics and then became our service and philanthropy chair, as well as phi tau’s IFC representative. Just this past summer I attended the 63rd national phi tau convention and was able to meet brothers and alum from all over the USA. Joining my fraternity gave me numerous opportunities to expand my leadership abilities, network with alumni and brothers, and add experiences to my professional resume.

A MESSAGE FROM THE NPHC PRESIDENT:

Greetings to you all and welcome back once again!

I hope that everyone is having a smooth start of the school year and have enjoyed the first couple of weeks. We still have much more to look forward to as the school year progresses. With that being said, take a moment and remind yourself throughout this semester and year about the reasons you joined your organizations. Look out for our brothers and sisters and hold each other accountable. We all have the same goals. While staying true to our values that our organizations were founded on and working together, we will impact our campus and community in ways we could not have imagined.

So stay positive, stay focused, stay motivated, and be the leader that we all are capable of being. Let’s make this school year an amazing one!

Brianna Manuel, NPHC President
